

Greencrossing Principal Jason Perrin Presents Southern California Project Study at the 2009 Big Builder Virtual Conference

Jason Perrin, co-founder and Principal of Greencrossing Real Estate Companies, Inc. – a real estate development, investment and land consulting firm– will be a presenter at the Big Builder Virtual Conference on November 16, 2009.

Perrin is part of a five member team creating a Southern California project study that will include a one-hour interactive presentation and a 15-minute live Q&A. Other team members include Randy Jackson (The Planning Center), Tim Kane (MBK Homes), Manny Gonzalez (KTGY) and Mike Disler.

The five-day conference, sponsored by Big Builder magazine, includes live events, on-demand training, multimedia presentations and online collaboration with participants across the management ranks of homebuilding organizations nationwide. For more information about the conference, go to www.bigbuilderconference.com

About Greencrossing Real Estate Companies, LLC

Greencrossing Real Estate Companies, LLC is a real estate development, investment and land consulting firm. Based in Aliso Viejo, Calif., the firm seeks opportunities to acquire, entitle and develop land in California and other key Western markets. Greencrossing also provides a wide range of asset management and consulting services targeting all facets of the residential real estate space including land entitlement and development, production home building, real estate capital markets, market research, acquisitions & dispositions, and mergers & acquisitions. Additional information is available at www.gxcompanies.com